This is Texas Softball

In 17 varsity seasons, Texas has established itself among the elite programs in the nation. UT has made five Women's College World Series (WCWS) appearances, four NCAA Super Regional trips and 14 NCAA Regional appearances. Texas has advanced to NCAA Regional play nine consecutive years entering the 2014 season (2005-13). UT is one of 19 programs to make the NCAA field for nine-straight years.

The Longhorns have held a record of .500 or better for the last nine years. The last time UT dipped below .500 was the final game of 2004, when its record was 24-25.

UT made its first WCWS in the program's second year of existence (1998), setting an NCAA record for fastest ascension to the sport's marquee event.

Texas is one of two programs to earn a top-eight national seed to the NCAA Tournament the last four years, joining Florida as the only squads to accomplish the feat.

Texas' Big 12 Conference regular season championship in 2010 extended a streak at UT in which every freshman class since 1999 has won at least one Big 12 title during its four years on the Forty Acres.

Head coach Connie Clark has been the architect of the Longhorns' program since its inception in 1997. Throughout her UT tenure, Clark has been named Big 12 Coach of the Year three times (2002, 2006 and 2010) and has amassed a career record of 696-293-3 (.703).

Texas owns four Big 12 Conference regular-season crowns (2002, 2003, 2006 and 2010), second most in the league, and added a conference-best four postseason Big 12 Championship titles (1999, 2002, 2003 and 2005).

Texas is one of just 11 schools to qualify for the WCWS five or more times in the last 16 years.

Texas holds an all-time regular season record of 192-105 (.646) in Big 12 play, the second-highest winning percentage in the history of Big 12 regular-season competition.

UT claims two Olympic gold medalists (Cat Osterman, 2004, USA, and Christa Williams, 1996 and 2000, USA) and a total of nine national and junior national team members.

The Longhorns have had 10 Easton All-America selections and 17 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-America honorees. Texas is also the only program in the NCAA to capture three USA Softball National Player of the Year awards.

UT has been continually recognized for its on-field exploits by the Big 12 Conference, earning a Big 12-high five Pitcher of the Year accolades and five Freshman of the Year honors. Additionally, Texas has claimed a total of 80 All-Big 12 selections. Amy Hooks received Texas' first Big 12 Player of the Year honor in 2011.

During 17 years of varsity softball, Texas players have not only shined on the field, but in the classroom as well. Longhorns have accumulated a total of six Academic All-America honors, 21 Academic All-District awards and 94 Academic All-Big 12 lauds.

Texas has finished the season ranked in the NFCA Top 25 poll 11 times in program history and has appeared in the poll during the season in 16 of its 17 years as a varsity program.

The Longhorns consistently rank among the nation's best in home attendance average, standing in the top 20 nationally every season since Red & Charline McCombs Field opened in 1998.

Few coaches can boast of successful 18-year spans in their careers, and even fewer can claim such a run at the beginning of their head coaching days. Since starting The University of Texas' softball program in 1996, head coach Connie Clark has built one of the most successful programs in college softball.

In 17 varsity seasons, Clark has given Texas Softball its reputation for having the best players, facilities, traditions and coaches. When people talk about Texas Softball, they talk about only one thing: success.

Since its ascension to varsity status in 1997, Texas has emerged as one of the most dominant softball programs in the nation under the direction of Clark. In 17 seasons at the helm of the varsity program, Clark -- the 1987 Broderick National Softball Player of the Year as a collegian -- has led UT to five Women's College World Series appearances (1998, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2013), 14 NCAA Tournament appearances (1998-2000, 2002-03, 2005-13), four Big 12 Conference Championship tournament titles (1999, 2002, 2003, 2005) and four Big 12 regular-season titles (2002, 2003, 2006, 2010). In fact, Texas' appearance in the 1998 WCWS -- in just its second varsity season -- still ranks as the quickest arrival at the NCAA Division I softball "Elite Eight" tournament in the history of the sport.

Texas is at the forefront of the national and international softball scene. Clark has produced one national player of the year (three times), 25 All-America selections, six Academic All-Americans and countless All-Big 12 honorees.

The Longhorns can also claim two Olympic gold medalists (pitchers Cat Osterman and Christa Williams), and a total of nine national and junior national team members, with three members of the 2013 Texas squad (Taylor Hoagland, Taylor Thom and Erin Shireman) being part of that group.

Clark's peers have taken notice of her work in Austin, voting her the Big 12 Coach of the Year in 2002, 2006 and 2010. Clark and her assistants' efforts in developing the Texas program were noted when they were honored as the 2006 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Midwest Region coaching Staff of the Year after being named the 2003 Speedline/NFCA Division I Coaching Staff of the Year.

In 2003, her Longhorns became the first-ever team to win both back-to-back Big 12 regular-season titles and back-to-back Big 12 Championship tournament titles.

Clark spent the 1996 season developing the Longhorns' program at the club level before guiding UT softball to intercollegiate Division I status in 1997. Texas commenced its status as a varsity program with a bang, collecting a winning record (30-24/.556) in its first official season.

Clark has not only created a national power, but has also molded many of the nation's top collegiate talents. Many UT players under Clark's eye have achieved national honors.

In her tenure, Texas players have earned three USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Awards (Osterman in 2003, 2005 and 2006) and two Honda Awards for national player of the year (Osterman in 2005 and 2006). Clark had at least one student-athlete earn NFCA All-America honors in each of the 1998, 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 seasons, including Osterman, who is the program's only four-time All-American.

In 1999, Williams earned second-team All-America accolades in her second season at Texas, while infielder Nikki Cockrell and outfielder Autumn Eastes represented UT on the third team. Williams and Cockrell were NFCA first-team members in 1998, and shortstop Jodi Reeves earned second-team recognition that year. Second baseman Lindsay Gardner earned second-team honors as a freshman in 2000.

Additionally, Clark's players have distinguished themselves at the regional and conference levels. Thirty of Clark's players have earned a total of 56 All-Region honors, including a program-high-tying six in 2013 with Kim Bruins, Hoagland, Blaire Luna, Mandy Ogle, Thom and Brejae Washington. Clark has recruited six Big 12 Freshmen of the Year (shortstop Thom in 2011, pitcher Luna in 2010, second baseman Chez Sievers in 2003, Osterman in 2002, Gardner in 2000 and second baseman Reeves in 1997).

Clark has also guided three pitchers to six other major conference awards as Luna claimed conference pitcher of the year honors in 2010 and Osterman was the back-to-back conference pitcher of the year in 2002 and 2003 and again in 2005 and 2006. Clark coached Williams to Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors in 1998. Clark has coached players to a total of 84 all-conference accolades.

International recognition also has come to Clark's pupils. The 2006 edition of the Longhorns' was the most internationally decorated unit at the Forty Acres since Clark started the program. The squad included a 2004 Olympic gold medalist and a 2003 Pan Am Games gold medalist (Osterman) and three players who represented the U.S. at the World Junior Championships (Boutelle in 2002, Denny and Desiree Williams in 2003).

Christa Williams' accolades continued in September of 1999, when she was named to the 2000 USA Olympic Softball team, the first of Clark's players to be tabbed an Olympian. Williams went on to win a gold medal at the Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, in addition to her gold medal from the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta. Williams also represented the United States at the 1999 Canada Cup, earning the Lori Sippel Award for the tournament's most outstanding pitcher.

Gardner competed with the 2001 USA Softball Team and 2002 USA Elite Team as well as being a member of the 2002 USA Softball National Training Team. Osterman was Gardner's teammate on the Elite Team, as well as the training team.

For Clark's Longhorns, the team's success always carries over into the classroom as numerous players have received national and conference honors for their academic success. In all, Clark's athletes have earned six Academic All-America honors, including Osterman's third-team recognition in 2003, the same year she earned her first USA Softball National Player of the Year honor.

Longhorns have garnered CoSIDA Academic All-District honors 21 times, most recently as senior infielder Lexy Bennett represented Texas on the 2012 team. Clark has also coached 94 Academic All-Big 12 Team selections at Texas.

Clark, a standout athlete in her playing days, has been associated with national-caliber softball programs everywhere she has been. As an assistant coach at Florida State (1990-95), Clark helped build the Seminoles into a national softball power and helped lead FSU to four appearances in the NCAA Women's College World Series and to five NCAA Regional trips.

Under Clark's direction, nearly every Florida State pitching record was broken during those five seasons. In 1994, one of Clark's protégés at FSU, Rebecca Aase, set the then-NCAA record for consecutive victories with

Head Coach Connie Clark

50, while the FSU pitching staff established a then-NCAA mark for most consecutive scoreless innings with 124.2.

History has proved that Clark has mastered the art of teaching. She helped coach six of her Florida State players to All-America honors, 23 to all-region honors and six to Academic All-America accolades. During that time, Clark also was busy completing her education, earning a master's degree in athletic administration from FSU in April of 1995.

Prior to coaching at Florida State, Clark was an outstanding pitcher in her own right, leading softball powerhouse Cal State Fullerton to the NCAA Women's College World Series title as a junior in 1986.

A three-time All-America pitcher, Clark posted a 20-2 record with 197 strikeouts in 155.1 innings while leading the nation with a 0.18 earned run average in 1986. The following year, Clark posted a 33-5 record with 32 complete games, 19 shutouts and 261 strikeouts in 283 innings, earning the Broderick Award as National Softball Player of the Year. Clark's career ERA of 0.37 as a Titan places her in the top 10 for career ERA in Division I softball.

In 1987, Clark earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from CSF, then worked as a private instructor at the Rod Carew Baseball School in California and conducted private clinics in Tokyo, Japan; Auckland, New Zealand; Shanghai, China; and Italy.

Prior to her two-year stint with Cal State Fullerton, Clark pitched for Central Arizona Junior College under the direction of Mike Candrea, who is now the head softball coach for the eight-time NCAA Champion Arizona Wildcats and the gold-medal winning 2004 Olympic team. Under Candrea's guidance, Clark led her team to back-to-back NJCAA championship crowns in 1984 and 1985.

For all of her success, Clark was inducted into the Arizona Softball Foundation Hall of Fame (2005), NJCAA Hall of Fame (2006), Cal State Fullerton Athletics Hall of Fame (2009) and Central Arizona Junior College Hall of Fame (2010).

Corrie Hill is in her ninth season as an assistant coach at The University of Texas. Hill oversees and directs all aspects of the Longhorns' offense and serves as bench coach during games.

Hill helped guide the 2013 squad back to the NCAA Women's College World Series (WCWS) for the first time since 2006. The squad also made the program's third appearance in the event's semifinals. The trip was part of the program's ninth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Last season, the offense was a key reason for UT's return to the WCWS. The Longhorns compiled the program's third-highest batting average (.322) and on-base percentage (.407) while posting the fourth-best slugging percentage (.473). The squad's 356 runs and 517 hits were both good for second on the Texas all-time charts. During the last three campaigns, UT has produced the three highest batting averages and on-base percentages in program history. The Longhorns also used their speed, stealing a program-best 126 bases, shattering the previous high of 114 by the 2011 club.

The 2013 campaign brought to a close the career of one of the most productive offensive players in UT history in Taylor Hoagland, who ended her career ranked in the school's top two in on-base percentage (1st/.501), slugging percentage (1st/.708), runs scored (1st/221), home runs (1st/58), walks (1st/178) total bases (1st/467), runs batted in (2nd/149), hits (2nd/241) and batting average (2nd/.365). As a senior, Hoagland established the program records for single-season slugging percentage (.821), walks (73), on-base percentage (.610) and runs scored (67). Junior Taylor Thom joined the record-setting parade, setting the single-year RBI mark with 66 and tying the total bases and doubles records with 132 and 16, respectively. Thom also checked in second in home runs (15), third in runs scored (55), fourth in hits (71), sixth in slugging percentage (.710), 10th in batting average (.382). Both were named National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Americans at the end of the year.

In 2012, Hill's offense scored a program-record 372 runs while collecting a UT-best 339 runs batted in. The team's 203 walks drawn are good for third on the school's all-time chart, and the .411 on-base percentage was the second best in the Texas record book, trailing only the 2011 team's .412 mark. Putting the ball in play was also a strong suit of the 2012 unit, as the 242 strikeouts were the second fewest since the beginning of the 2005 campaign. UT ended the year ranked first in the Big 12 in batting average (.330), on-base percentage (.411), doubles (85) and triples (13).

Individually in 2012, Hill helped Hoagland establish program record for single-season home runs (18) and Nadia Taylor set the mark for doubles with 16, which Thom matched in 2013. Lexy Bennett recorded the then-second-best batting average, at .422 (73-for-173), a year after she set the single-season record with a .438 clip (57-for-130). Bennett's 73 hits tied Loryn Johnson (2009) for the second most in a year in program history.

In 2011, Hill coached the Longhorns' hitters to one of the best offensive seasons in program history, including program records in on-base percentage (.412), triples (16) and then-school marks for batting average (.324) and stolen bases (114). At the end, the team also ranked No. 2 in the UT single-season record books in slugging percentage (.540), home runs (70), RBI (279) and walks (201).

The previous season, Hill led Texas to a banner offensive campaign that included a then-Big 12-record 88 home runs. The Longhorns' offense paced UT to the 2010 Big 12 Conference title and its sixth-consecutive NCAA regional appearance. Texas set then-single-season highs in slugging percentage (.545), home runs, runs batted in (291) and total bases (807).

In 2009, Hill coached the Longhorns' hitters to then-single-season records in hits (471), doubles (79), and walks (204).

In Hill's third season at UT, she led the squad to a .425 slugging percentage and its then-third-highest home run total (49) in program history. In her first four seasons at UT, Hill's hitters ballooned opponents' ERAs to over 3.50, marking the highest opponent ERA in a four-year span since the program's inception.

During 2007, Hill's hitters notched 42 home runs and a .406 slugging percentage. Texas also recorded a .342 on-base percentage, while the hitters' patience netted the Horns a then-school record 153 walks.

In her first season in 2006, Texas saw its offensive production improve dramatically. Texas more than tripled its home run output from the year before, hammering 46 home runs, compared with only 15 long balls during the 2005 season. The Horns also saw a rise in runs scored (239 in 2006 - 174 in 2005), doubles (78-46), triples (15-10), RBI (210-143), total bases (646-481), slugging percentage (.410-.303) and batting average (.254-.233).

The added offense that Hill has brought to the Longhorns helped UT earn its second consecutive trip to the Women's College World Series in 2006, Big 12 regular-season titles in 2006 and 2010 and trips to the NCAA Regional every year since she joined the program. Following the 2006 season, Hill and the Texas coaching staff were named the 2006 NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Prior to coming to Texas, Hill was the head coach of UTSA's softball team for seven years. Hill's Roadrunners won two Southland Conference titles (2004 and 2005) and made the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2004, earning her Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Hill left UTSA as the program's all-time winningest coach with a 221-180-1 (.551) record. She has a career head coaching record of 266-248-2 (.517).

With Hill directing the Roadrunners' offense, UTSA was a consistent presence at the top of the NCAA batting statistics. The Roadrunners won three NCAA home run titles -- including a NCAA record 1.83 home runs per game in 2004 -- and won the 2005 NCAA slugging percentage title (.575). UTSA also finished second nationally in team batting average (.335) and runs per game (6.28) in 2005.

Hill's teams posted astonishing offensive statistics during her final three seasons at UTSA. From 2003 through 2005, the Roadrunners hit a combined 284 home runs in 169 games, and the team belted out 932 runs, 1,401 hits, 215 doubles, 19 triples while also chipping in 876 RBI with an overall batting average of .306 and a .548 slugging percentage.

In 2005, UTSA broke five Southland Conference single-season records, including batting average (.335), total bases (972), runs (377), home runs (103) and RBI (351). In 2004, UTSA set the NCAA single-game mark for homers with 10, and tied the single-game record for total bases with 64, in a 26-1 victory at Texas Southern. Overall, Hill's Roadrunners set 25 team records and 29 individual single-season and career marks, including 21 offensive records. Additionally, Amanda Michalsky led Division I in batting and slugging percentage in 1999, while Jessica Rodgers topped the NCAA charts in 2005 in home runs and slugging percentage.

In the summer of 2013, Rodgers was named the Southland Conference All-Time Hitter as part of the league's 50th anniversary celebration. Also members of the Southland Conference All-Time Softball roster were Hill's Michalsky, Jessica Els, Krystal Gibson and Aimee Murray.

With all of the offensive acclaim Hill's teams generated, it is no surprise her squads succeeded on the field. Coupled with the pair of conference championships, UTSA fielded 22 all-conference players, including 10 first-team nods, and four National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-South Region performers.

Prior to her arrival at UTSA, Hill served as head coach and assistant general manager for the Durham Dragons of the Women's Pro Fastpitch League (WPFL). As coach, she led the Dragons to a third-place finish and touted the league's home run champion in Trish Reinhardt and the co-batting champion in Patty Raduenz. She also has the distinction of coaching in the first declared women's pro game when the Durham Dragons met the Virginia Roadsters.

Hill started her coaching career as an assistant at UT Arlington (1989-92) before serving as head coach at Southeastern Louisiana (1992-95). She compiled a 45-68-1 record while at SLU and produced eight all-conference players and three all-state performers. Hill also had a one-year stint as an assistant and pitching coach at Baylor during the 1995-96 season, when the school resurrected its program, before she headed to the pro league.

Hill played collegiate softball at Baylor and UT Arlington. She picked up team offensive player of the year honors while at Baylor before finishing her collegiate career at UTA after Baylor dropped its program. With the Mavericks, Hill helped lead UTA to the league crown and was named to the All-SLC first team and all-tournament team in 1989.

Coupled with the Southland Conference title she earned in 2004 as head coach at UTSA, Hill earned the distinction of being the only SLC coach to win a league crown as a player (UT Arlington in 1989) and coach.

Hill began her post-collegiate playing career in the ASA majors with the Lone Star Lady Lights in 1989. She then starred as a catcher and first baseman for the softball Coors Light Silver Bullets in 1990-92.

In addition to her coaching duties, Hill was a three-year member of the NCAA Midwest Regional committee (2001-03) and was a voter on the NFCA Coaches Top 25 (2002-03). Hill has also served on the Southland Conference Coaches Committee and was a member of the NFCA's Convention Committee and the Rules Committee of the WPFL. She is an accomplished speaker for National Sports Clinics, presenting on softball mechanics (1990-92, 2008-present).

A Fort Worth, Texas, native, Hill graduated from UTA in December 1991 with a degree in exercise and sport studies with a minor in speech.

Fourth season at Texas

Hometown _____ Grand Prairie, Texas
High School _____South Grand Prairie (Grand Prairie, Texas)
College _____ Texas A&M
Degree _____ B.S. in kinesiology, 1997

The 2014 season marks Jennifer McFalls' fourth year as an assistant on head coach Connie Clark's staff. A former USA Softball standout and Olympic gold medalist, McFalls serves as the Longhorns' defensive coach.

In 2013, McFalls helped the program to the second-most wins in a year with 51 and a return trip to the Women's College World Series. The Longhorns made the semifinals of the event for just the third time in program history, and first since 2005. The defense posted a .971 fielding percentage, the second highest in the last seven years. Six student-athletes finished the campaign without committing an error. The squad's 1,219 put-outs were the most since 1,316 in 2006.

During the 2012 season, McFalls helped the Longhorns to their third NCAA Super Regional appearance and to within one game of the Women's College World Series. McFalls shaped a defense that posted a .968 fielding percentage. The 1,199 putouts during the campaign were the second most by the team since the start of the 2007 season.

In her first season on the Forty Acres, McFalls guided UT to a 46-10 record and a trip to its seventh-straight NCAA Regional appearance. She helped Texas to a school-record .980 fielding percentage, a mark that was the best in the Big 12 Conference and third in the NCAA.

McFalls joined the Texas staff after spending the previous five seasons as the head coach and assistant athletics director at Midlothian High School in Midlothian, Texas. During her tenure at MHS she posted a 139-48 record and led her team to five-straight playoff appearances.

In addition to her duties at Midlothian, McFalls has been active with USA Softball, serving on the USA Softball selection committee from 2005-10. She recently served as assistant coach for Team USA at the 2010 Canadian Open Fast Pitch International Championship where she coached 2013 Texas graduate Blaire Luna.

Prior to her time at Midlothian, McFalls was head softball coach and assistant athletics director at the Hockaday School in Dallas from 2003-05. In 2002 and 2003, she was the fastpitch softball academy director at Power Alley in Grand Prairie, Texas.

McFalls has had two previous stints as a collegiate assistant coach, serving one season at the University of Oklahoma in 1998 and three seasons at Texas A&M University from 1995-97. Following her tenure at OU, she spent five years working in softball clinics, television, personal training and motivational speaking.

As a player, McFalls won a gold medal as a member of Team USA at the 2000 Olympics, when she scored the game-winning run in the bottom of the eighth inning in USA's 2-1 victory over Japan in the gold medal game. She also scored the only run in USA's 1-0 win against Australia to send the Americans to the gold medal game. McFalls was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1994-2000, helping her teams to a gold medal in the 1999 Pan American Games and a gold medal at the 1998 World Championships.

McFalls played collegiately for Texas A&M where she earned first-team All-America honors as a shortstop in 1993 and led the Aggies in batting average, hits, total bases and slugging percentage in all four seasons of her career. In 1994 she was named the school's Female Athlete of the Year and in 2001 she was inducted into the Texas A&M Hall of Fame. McFalls graduated from A&M in 1997 with a degree in kinesiology.

Special Assistant Shanna Diller

Second season at Texas

Hometown _____ Bloomington, Ill.
High School _____Normal Community (Normal, Ill.)
College _____ Illinois
Degree _____ B.A. in advertising, 2008

Shanna Diller enters her second season as a special assistant with the Texas Softball program.

In her current role, Diller serves as the program's travel coordinator, pregame coordinator and summer camp director.

During her initial year on the Forty Acres, Diller was part of the Longhorn program that returned to the Women's College World Series for the first time since 2006. Texas won a program second-best 51 games and made its ninth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Diller joined UT following a two-year stint as an Assistant Director of Marketing at the University of Illinois, where she served as the primary marketing contact for women's soccer, women's basketball, men's and women's gymnastics and baseball. Prior to joining the department on a full-time basis, Diller was a graduate assistant from 2009-10 for the I FUND, working specifically with the Varsity "I" Association and its mailings, individual sport reunions and other related events. During that time, she also played professional softball for the Rockford Thunder and Tennessee Diamonds.

From 2005-08, Diller was the starting third baseman for the Fighting Illini softball program, earning a trio of All-Big Ten Conference selections as well as a pair of placements on ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-District 5 squads. She also became the first three-time team captain in program history.

As a junior, Diller was named the winner of the team's Scholar-Athlete and Gold Glove awards in addition to representing Illinois on the Big Ten Sportsmanship Team.

A native of Bloomington, Ill., Diller owns the seventh-best batting average in Illinois career history, checking in with a .314 mark. She also stands second in home runs (37), third in runs scored (163), runs batted in (158) and walks (92), fourth in slugging percentage (.537) and doubles (40), seventh in hits (213), on-base percentage (.403) and at bats (678) and ninth in stolen bases (23).

In Illinois single-season history, Diller's 52 runs scored in 2007 are the fourth most. That year Diller also slugged 16 home runs, good for the second most in a year in program history, and posted a .623 slugging percentage, the eighth highest for a Fighting Illini player. As a senior, she hit 17 doubles, tied for the second most in a campaign.

Upon completing her eligibility at Illinois, Diller signed a free-agent contract with the Rockford Thunder of the National Pro Fastpitch. The Thunder, behind the pitching arm of former Longhorns' All-American Cat Osterman, claimed the 2009 championship with a 2-0 victory over the USSSA Pride in the third game of the series. Diller led the squad with 18 runs batted in during the title-winning campaign. A summer later, Diller played for the Tennessee Diamonds, batting .294 and collecting 20 hits.

Diller graduated from Illinois with a bachelor's degree in advertising and a business minor in December 2008 and followed with her master's degree in sports management in May 2010.

2013 Season in Review: Notebook

MAKING IT BACK TO OKLAHOMA CITY

For the fifth time in program history, and first since 2006, Texas advanced to the Women's College World Series (WCWS). The Longhorns swept through the Austin Regional and Austin Super Regional to return to Oklahoma City for the sport's premier event.

The Longhorns reached the semifinals of the WCWS for the third time in program history, joining the 2003 and 2005 squads as the only teams to accomplish the feat.

AND DANCING FOR THE NINTH-STRAIGHT YEAR

As part of the WCWS run, Texas made its 14th NCAA Softball Tournament appearance and ninth consecutive trip. The Longhorns are one of 19 programs to appear in the NCAA Tournament every year since 2005.

FINISHING AT NO. 3

The Longhorns capped the season with the No. 3 ranking in both the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) and ESPN.com/USA Softball final polls.

The ranking from the NFCA is the highest Texas has ever been in the organization's final poll, while the mark is tied with the 2006 squad for the highest in the last USA Softball poll. It also marked the fourth-straight year and seventh time in the last nine seasons in which Texas ended the year in the top 25.

AND WITHIN THE TOP 10 NEARLY ALL YEAR

Texas spent one week during the year outside the top nine in the NFCA poll. The only time UT was in the top nine for the entire season was in 2006, when the squad ranked No. 5 or higher each week.

LOTS OF WINS

During the campaign, UT recorded 51 victories, the second most in a year in program history, behind only the 2006 squad's 55 triumphs. The Longhorns also ended the year with the third-best winning percentage by a Texas team at .836. The mark was the fourth highest for a Division I club in 2013.

LUNA A TOP-10 FINALIST FOR COLLEGIATE POY

Senior pitcher Blaire Luna was among the 10 finalists for the Amateur Softball Association of America's 2013 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award. It marked the third time in Luna's career she has been selected as one of 10 finalists for the award, as she was also tabbed as a top-10 honoree in 2010 and 2011.

A PROGRAM-BEST THREE NFCA ALL-AMERICANS

Luna (NFCA and Easton First Team), senior third baseman Taylor Hoagland (NFCA and Easton First Team) and junior shortstop Taylor Thom (NFCA Third Team) all earned All-America honors. The three honorees from the NFCA are tied for the most in a year in program history, joining the 1998 and 1999 squads.

Luna earned All-America honors from the NFCA and Easton for the third time in her career, but it was her initial appearance on the NFCA's top team. She was an NFCA Second Team All-America honoree as a freshman and sophomore. Hoagland and Thom both earned the initial All-America honors of their careers.

SIX LONGHORNS EARN NFCA ALL-CENTRAL REGION HONORS

UT had six players receive NFCA All-Central Region honors. Hoagland, Luna, Thom and senior utility/pitcher Kim Bruins were first-team selections, while juniors Mandy Ogle and Brejae Washington were named to the second team.

The six selections tied the 2011 team for the program record for most in a year.

UT NETS SIX ALL-BIG 12 SELECTIONS

Texas earned six All-Big 12 Conference selections, including four first-team members. Hoagland, Luna, Thom and Washington were All-Big 12 First Team picks while seniors Bruins and Torie Schmidt were named to the second team. Washington also picked up All-Big 12 Defensive Team accolades.

The six all-league picks mark the fifth-straight year UT has had six or more All-Big 12 honorees.

TWO WCWS ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM PICKS

Bruins and Luna were named to the WCWS All-Tournament Team. The pair of selections tied the program high, set in 2003 when Cat Osterman and Tamara Poppe earned the distinction. Bruins drove in six runs at the event, tied with Oklahoma's Keilani Ricketts for the most by any player during the WCWS. Luna led all pitchers at the event with 12.1 strikeouts per seven innings and tied for second in overall strikeouts with 38.

CLARK APPROACHING 700

Head coach Connie Clark has been with the Texas program since its inception in 1996. The 51 wins in 2013 pushed her total to 696. During her 17 seasons with the varsity program, Clark's players have received 25 All-America selections, 56 all-region honors and 84 All-Big 12 Conference picks.

AMONG THE BEST IN THE NCAA

At the end of the year, Texas ranked among the NCAA Division I top 25 as a team in six categories: winning percentage (fourth/.836), stolen bases per game (fifth/2.07), earned-run average (sixth/1.65), batting average (13th/.322), fielding percentage (21st/.971) and runs per game (25th/5.84).

THE MOST AMONG ALL DIVISION I HURLERS

Luna ended her senior year as the Division I leader in strikeouts (422) and strikeouts per seven innings (11.7). Luna also stood among the top 10 in Division I in fewest hits allowed per seven innings (second/3.14), victories (seventh/32), shutouts (sixth/13) and earned-run average (10th/1.28).

PLENTY OF OTHERS WITHIN THE TOP 25

Texas nearly had two players top individual categories in Division I as Hoagland closed the campaign ranked second in walks per game (1.2) and third in on-base percentage (.610). Hoagalnd finished the year 10th in runs per game (1.1) and 15th in slugging percentage (.821). Thom stood 17th in runs batted in per game (1.1) while Washington checked in 16th in triples per game (0.11) and fourth in triples (seven).

OFFENSE DENTING THE RECORD BOOKS

As a team during the 2013 season, Texas stole 126 bases to set the program record by surpassing the 2011 squad's 114 total. The Longhorns also drew the most walks in a year with 211, eclipsing the 2009 team's 204 free passes. UT recorded its second-most runs batted in (316), hits (517), runs scored (356) and sacrifice flies (20) in a year during the 2013 season.

2013 Season in Review: Notebook

TYING NCAA RECORDS

Thom became the fourth player in NCAA history to hit two grand slams in a game when she tallied one in the first and third innings at Houston on Feb. 16. She set the Texas single-game record with eight runs batted in during the contest.

A week later, Thom matched another NCAA record with three doubles in a contest against Utah State on Feb. 23.

During the season, Thom hit four grand slams, tying her for the third most in a year by an NCAA Division I player. She became just the fifth Division I player to hit four or more slams in a year.

STANDING ALONE AT THE TOP OF THE CAREER CHARTS

Hoagland finished her time on the Forty Acres as the program's career record holder in slugging percentage (.708), on-base percentage (.501), runs scored (221), home runs (58), walks (178) and total bases (467). The Flower Mound, Texas, native also ranks second in Texas history in career batting average (.365), hits (241), runs batted in (149) and stolen bases (88).

SINGLE-SEASON RECORDS FALL

Hoagland wrapped the 2013 season with Texas single-season best marks in slugging percentage (.821), on-base percentage (.610), walks (73) and runs scored (67). Thom set or tied the program single-year records for runs batted in (66), doubles (16) and total bases (132). Washington tied the UT season record with her seven triples.

LONGHORNS AND USA SOFTBALL

Hoagland and Thom were two of 16 athletes chosen to represent the USA Softball Women's National Team during the summer of 2013.

Freshman Erin Shireman was one of 17 players to earn a roster spot with the 2013 USA Softball Junior Women's National Team. Texas signee Kelli Hanzel, who will join the Longhorns in the fall of 2013, was one of three alternates chosen.

BIG 12 PLAYERS AND PITCHERS OF THE WEEK

During the course of the 2013 campaign, UT picked up seven Big 12 Player or Pitcher of the Week awards. Thom received two Player of the Week awards, Bruins one and Luna captured four Pitcher of the Week honors.

Thom (Feb. 19 & 26) became the first Longhorn to be named the league's player of the week in consecutive weeks. She was the first player in the Big 12 to pick up the league honor in back-to-back weeks since Oklahoma State's Heather Scaglione (April 27 and May 4, 2004). Luna claimed consecutive awards on March 27 and April 2, a first for a UT hurler since Cat Osterman from April 18-May 2, 2006.

IT'S ALL ACADEMIC

Luna, Ogle and Schmidt were 2013 Academic All-Big 12 selections with Ogle and Luna on the first squad and Schmidt the second.

Red & Charline McCombs Field

One of the top facilities in all of collegiate softball opened on Feb. 7, 1998, when a sellout crowd of 1,251 walked through the gates of Red & Charline McCombs Field, the new home of The University of Texas softball program. Like all of UT's newest construction projects, McCombs Field represents UT's continuing commitment to provide Longhorns student-athletes with the finest facilities in the country.

The $4.5 million complex sports all of the amenities of a first-class stadium, with spacious home and visiting team dugouts and locker rooms, along with coaches suites, team meeting areas and an umpire locker room, as well as a fully-equipped athletic training room in the home locker room. A unique feature of the home and visiting locker rooms is their direct access to the dugouts.

The NCAA regulation-size field sports the finest grass and clay infield available, which was laser leveled in the summer of 2004.

In 2009 McCombs installed an LED scoreboard with full video capabilities.

In the fall of 2005, the facility underwent a face-lift as a new study area was constructed in the Horns' locker room, the athletic training room was equipped with a state-of-the-art whirlpool, equipment storage was added both inside and out and the press box was redesigned to accommodate the growing media attention.

The press box underwent another renovation in the fall of 2012 as a television broadcasting booth was constructed and two radio booths were added.

When fans and opponents arrive at McCombs Field, they are treated to unobstructed grandstand seating, a concessions area and accessible parking.

The fan-friendly atmosphere at McCombs Field has attracted some of the nation's top crowds since its opening. Year in and year out, McCombs Field welcomes thousands of Longhorns faithful to witness some of the best collegiate softball.

In fact, Texas has been ranked in the top 20 nationally in average attendance every season since opening McCombs Field in 1998. In 2012, the Horns welcomed a program-record 28,536 fans to McCombs Field for an average of 815 per contest.

The field and complex area were named in the spring of 1997 for Texas businessman Red McCombs and his wife, Charline, who are generous benefactors to The University of Texas.

National Honors

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE PLAYER OF THE YEAR: CAT OSTERMAN (2003, 2005, 2006)

During her four years on the Forty Acres, Cat Osterman was named USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year three times and is noted as one of the top softball pitchers in the world. Osterman was the youngest member of the U.S. Olympic team to bring home a gold medal from Athens in 2004, and the 6-foot-2-inch lefthander set the NCAA career record for strikeouts-per-seven innings (14.34), as well as ranking No. 2 all-time in career strikeouts (2,265) and career shutouts (85). While leading the NCAA as a senior in 2006 with an ERA of 0.42 and 15.4 strikeouts-per-seven-innings pitched, Osterman finished 38-4 with 28 shutouts and five no-hitters and led 55-9 Texas to a Women's College World Series berth for the third time in her Longhorn career. She was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in February 2013.

Osterman broke virtually every University of Texas school pitching record, as well as several Big 12 Conference records. As a freshman, she pitched the first perfect game in UT softball history -- the first of her nine career perfect games and just one of her 20 career no-hitters. As a sophomore, she was named USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year after leading the Longhorns to their second-ever Women's College World Series appearance. In her junior year, she posted a season record of 30-7 with an NCAA Division I-leading 0.36 ERA, pitched 22 shutouts and six no-hitters with three perfect games to again garner Player of the Year laurels and a return trip to the World Series.

Osterman was a four-time National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American and four-time Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Year -- becoming the first Big 12 student-athlete across all sports to earn a player of the year honor four times. In addition, the psychology major was a three-time member of the Academic All-Big 12 Team.
